Introduction

Indonesia & International Conference on Population and Development

- Indonesia is one of the founding members of Partners in Population and Development (PPD) which was founded in 1994 during the International Conference on Population and Development (ICPD) in Cairo, Egypt.
- Indonesia (c.q. National Family Planning Coordinating Board (BKKBN)) has received the UN Population Award 2022 as recognition for leadership in the field of population.
- At the 57th Session of the Commission on Population and Development (CPD-57) meeting in New York, 29 April - 3 May 2024, Indonesia emphasized 3 best practices of Indonesia in implementing the PoA-ICPD:
  1. The importance of a population policy framework;
  2. Cooperation between the government and other stakeholders such as NGOs;
  3. Localization of population policies in the regions through Quality Family Village
- Indonesia also emphasizes the importance of collaboration and cooperation of all countries in collective efforts to face the challenges of population complexity and encourage the concrete achievement of the PoA-ICPD.
